Description

The villa is the premium-quality pool villas inspired by the concept of integrating the Oriental atmosphere with the modern Western lifestyle to offer the splendid residential experience. The design is based on the idea of co-housing for the five pool-villas. The villa provides beautiful experience of living in a small, cozy, premium-quality neighborhood with high privacy and typically Phuket surroundings.

Phuket, the fascinating island, is the southern-cultural city and a great destination for travelers. The unique Sino-Portuguese architecture reflects the long history of people's way of life and the East-West identity of the town. The mixed and matched of cultures even originated its unique European-Oriental architectural identity.
